EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI) FOR FARMER'S AGGREGATOR COMPANIES UNDER THE RENEWED HOPE SMALLHOLDER SUPPORT AND VALUE-CHAIN FUND (RH-SHF)

Issued by: Bank of Agriculture (BOA)

Programme: Renewed Hope Smallholder Support and Value-Chain Fund (RH-SHF)

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Bank of Agriculture (BOA) invites eligible and competent Farmer Aggregator Companies (FACs) to express interest in participating as accredited aggregation partners under the Renewed Hope Smallholder Support and Value-Chain Fund (RH-SHF).

The Renewed Hope Smallholder Support and Value-Chain Fund (RH-SHF) is a strategic financing intervention designed to provide affordable credit, quality inputs, extension services, and guaranteed market off-take to smallholder farmers across Nigeria. Aggregators play a critical role in farmer mobilization, input distribution, production support, harvest aggregation, and market linkage.

- Proven track record of working with smallholder farmers in clusters/cooperatives.

- Operational Capacity:

- Existing out-grower network and farmer clusters.
- Functional extension and advisory service system.
- Capacity for input distribution and harvest management.
- Warehousing/storage facilities with GPS tracking capability (digital e-warehousing preferred).
- Market linkage and payment management systems.
- Logistics and fleet management capacity.
- Farmer's mobilization and verification
- Operator of the company or its Agent(s) must reside in the place or near the location of the warehouse(s).

- Financial Standing:

- Audited financial statements for the last 3 years.
- Annual turnover of at least ₦500,000,000.00 (Five Hundred Million Naira).
- Valid Tax Clearance Certificates (2022, 2023, 2024).
- Evidence of Pension (PENCOM), ITF, and NSITF compliance.

- Regulatory Compliance:

- Registration with relevant agricultural regulatory bodies (NASC, NAIDA, etc.).
- Registration on the National Database of Federal Contractors, Consultants and Service Providers.
